

WEATHER INDICATIONS: FAIR, COLDER.

The CIRCULATION

A Net 493,490 OF THE WORLD

Per Day Over Averaged the Past

Same Week Last Year of Week

67,499 Copies. Week

Only Per Week Day in Three Years, 152,694 Copies. Day.

PRICE ONE CENT

The EVENING EDITION

"Circulation Books Open to All."

NEW YORK, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1894.

THE CLOAKMAKERS AT HOME.

WEATHER INDICATIONS: FAIR, COLDER.

The SUNDAY SALES

OF THE WORLD

YESTERDAY, No. 339,210 SALES

Evening Edi- tion, Were for the Same Day Last Year Were 261,821 Copies.

A Net Gain in Twelve Months of 77,389 Copies.

PRICE ONE CENT.

READING THE LATEST NEWS OF THE STRIKE. A FAIR STRIKER.

"EVICTED." AT WALTHALL HALL. (Sketched from Life by an "Evening World" Artist.)

A DETECTED "SPY."

ONE OF THE LEADERS.

NIGHT EDITION

THE TALENT UPSET.

Gallatin, 8 to 1, and Jewel, 6 to 1, Capture Their Events.

McKee Gets the Second Race, Marshall the Third Event.

The Fifth Race Goes to McIntyre at St. Asaph Track.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Nov. 12.—Clear and cool were the weather conditions to-day at St. Asaph, while the track was fast, yesterday's rain not having been heavy enough to do any appreciable harm. The attendance was fair for a Monday, and eighteen books were on scratch in the different races began early in the day, and before long the notice board was covered with names. The fields, however, were very large, and the horses withdrawn did not affect the quality of the sport.

SELLING SIX FURLONGS. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

SECOND RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

THIRD RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

FOURTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

FIFTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

SIXTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

SEVENTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

EIGHTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

NINTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

TENTH RACE. Betting: St. Hil. Fin. Gallatin, 110 (Climax)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4 Black Hawk, 101 (Penn)..... 4-1 8-1 1 2 1/2 1/4

ALEXANDER ISLAND RESULTS.

(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, ALEXANDER ISLAND, Nov. 12.—The results of the racing here to-day were as follows:
First Race—Six and a half furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Second Race—Five furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Third Race—Six furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Fourth Race—Four and one-half furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Fifth Race—Seven furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.

LEXINGTON RACE RESULTS.

RACE TRACK, LEXINGTON, Nov. 12.—The results of this track to-day resulted as follows:
First Race—Seven furlongs.—Won by Miss Lilly, 2 to 1 and 4 to 5. The Ironsides, 3 to 1 and 4 to 5. Sister Anita third. Time—1:21.
Second Race—Four and one-half furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Third Race—Five furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Fourth Race—Six furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Fifth Race—Seven furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.

RESULTS AT ROBY.

RACE TRACK, ROBY, Ind., Nov. 12.—The results of to-day's races here were as follows:
First Race—Five furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Second Race—Four and one-half furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Third Race—Six furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Fourth Race—Five furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.
Fifth Race—Seven furlongs.—Won by Tenebris. Lehigh was second and Ontario third. Time—1:21 1/2.

WILL NOT BUY ALIX.

Mr. Havemeyer Denies that He Offered $300,000 for the Mare.
Mr. H. O. Havemeyer, the Sugar Trust magnate, when seen at his office, corner of Wall and Front streets, relative to the report that he had offered $300,000 for Alix, the great trotter, said emphatically: "There's not a word of truth in it."

FROM SHOW TO SALE.

Ex-Mayor Grant's Noted Team Brings $925—Other Strings Sold.
One of the most important auction sales of high steppers, trotters and other finely bred horses, many of which were prize winners at the Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, last week, was held at the residence of Mr. W. C. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Whitney, ex-Mayor Grant, David Bonner, C. R. Forest, W. J. Sampson, T. L. Crawford, P. B. Bradley, Boston, I. B. Nolle, and others, on Saturday afternoon.

HACKED HIS THROAT.

Insane John Raymond Created a Panic on Division Street.
John Raymond, a handsome, athletic young Italian, who has been an epileptic for some time, a fit of temporary insanity, this afternoon ran from his home, 9 James street, into the street attired in a suit of underclothing.

His appearance on that crowded thoroughfare created a panic among the women shoppers, and the milliners made haste to close and lock their doors.

The crowd, which numbered several hundred, seemed to have the effect of still further terrifying the man, and in order to escape he jumped into a wagon belonging to the American Express Company.

He remained there but a moment. After jumping out, he ran into the hallway of 8 Catherine street, where he held the crowd at bay.

Then he recovered his reason and allowed his brother, Joseph Raymond, to approach him. He was bleeding profusely from the wound in his neck.

Police officers and a doctor were attracted by the crowd, hurried to the spot, and while one held the man in custody the other sent for a physician.

He had been attending for epilepsy by the doctor, when called in this morning at 9 o'clock, found his patient in a highly excitable nervous state and ordered bromide of potassium and also ordered him to be kept on the man's head.

He is married and has one child, about seven months ago he and his wife, who was Rosina Pionelli, separated. Shortly after this his present trouble made its appearance. She is at present living at 38 Mulberry street.

HANGED IN THE CELLAR.

Publisher Hopt Committed Suicide at His Home.
August W. Hopt, a publisher with an office at 188 East One Hundred and Seventeenth street, hanged himself in the cellar of his home, 217 East One Hundred and Fourteenth street, this afternoon. He was fifty-three years old.

Hopt had been suffering from dementia, caused by ill-health and worry over poor business. He was married and had five children.

"P. JAY" LAID AT REST.

Mourning Friends Place Numerous Floral Offerings at His Bier.
The funeral services over the body of Peter J. Donohue, whose writings bore the pen name of "P. Jay" made him famous, were held in St. Paul's R. C. Church, One Hundred and Seventeenth street and Park avenue, at 10:30 this morning. Over four hundred people, to all of whom "Pete" was in life a near associate, attended the ceremony.

The body lay in the house in which Peter was born and had spent the thirty-three years of his exceedingly active life. All day yesterday, when mourning friends by the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence burials of the score offered condolence

SENATORS TO INQUIRE.

Lexow Committee to Investigate That $1,000,000 Appropriation.

LABOR MEN MUCH PLEASED.

Delegate Tomblinson Commends "The Evening World's" Enterprise to the C. L. U.

"STROLLERS IN THE PARK."

Many of Them Secured Work Tickets Which Commissioners Divided Up Between Them.

The President of the Park Board has announced that he will not be interviewed any more on the subject of the expenditure of the million-dollar appropriation. He has said, however, a great many things, some few of which cannot be forgotten. It is less than three months since Mr. Clausen said, when spoken to on the subject:

"Between $600,000 and $700,000 of the appropriation has been and the balance will be used long before the campaign begins."

That was when the Park Board refused to give an accounting of the money expended to the representatives organized labor who called upon him. Mr. Clausen has since then been the items of labor which have been taken from the Comptroller's books—but it doesn't seem to have been the right kind of labor which was employed. The work doesn't show. Over $600,000 has been expended, and Central Park scarcely shows it. The complaint about the employment of men has never died down since that day the Commissioners divided the work tickets up between them.

The tickets were not always used properly and the result was that a great many of us fell into the hands of known no labor for years, whose owners were not averse to "strolling in the park" at so much per day.

It was only three weeks ago that the members of the Central Labor Union, who had followed the appropriation with watchful eyes from its beginning, instructed its committee to consult with Mr. John W. Goff as to an early date as possible, and have brought before the Lexow Committee facts as to the expenditure of this money.

"The Evening World" was commissioned by Delegate George Tomblinson, of the Gliders Union, at yesterday's meeting of the Central Labor Union, for its enterprise and pluck in exposing the shameful manner in which the Park Commissioners have wasted the $1,000,000 appropriation.

Mr. Tomblinson also said that he had been assured by Lawyer Jerome that the matter would surely be submitted to the Lexow Committee.

The table published to-day shows expenditure of painting settees, fountains, bridges, etc. "The etc." is supposed to include anything that could be painted.

There was purchased for this work $2,000.40 worth of paint and $100.00 worth of brushes with which to apply it, while the labor necessary amounted to $16,000.54 from March 16 to August 15.

There doesn't seem to have been much painting done in the parks, not $20,000, certainly, but the "etc." will probably cover any balance that may be found wanting, as it does in a great many of the other items.

Following is the sixth installment of the figures taken from the Comptroller's books:

Central Park and City Parks—Improvement of Painting Settees, Fountains, Bridges, etc.

March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00
March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00
March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00

March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00
March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00
March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00

March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00
March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00
March 15, J. H. Timmerman, 100.00

AGAINST THE GOULD HEIRS.

Their Application for Tax Assessment Cancellation Is Denied.

COMMISSIONERS TO ANSWER.

Must Show Cause Why They Should Not Be Punished for Contempt of Court.

DIDN'T REPLY TO CERTIORARI.

This, Justice Lawrence Decides, Is the Only Relief He Can Afford the Gould Children.

Justice Lawrence, of the Supreme Court, this afternoon handed down a decision denying the application of all the children of the late Jay Gould, in their individual capacity and as executors of their father's will, for the cancellation of the taxes, assessed against their personal property, and that of the Gould estate.

In his decision Justice Lawrence states that he will issue an order requiring the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to show cause why they should not be punished for contempt of Court. In having failed to make a return to the writ of certiorari obtained by the Gould children several months ago, for a review of the assessment placed upon their personal property.

The Gould children secured the writ on the ground that they were not residents of this city, but lived in Lakewood and Tarrytown, in which places they paid taxes, and the Goulds then applied for the cancellation of the taxes by the default of the Commissioners.

Justice Lawrence's decision in full is as follows: On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

On July 14, 1894, an order was entered in each of these cases that a return be made by the Commissioners of Taxes and Assessments to the writ of certiorari by the Gould children, by the 6th day of August, 1894, containing a full and complete statement of the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ, and the reasons for their refusal to comply with the writ.

ASTOR IN A POLICE COURT.

John Jacob Astor Called at Jefferson Market Court this Morning, Accompanied by Orme Wilson, his Brother-in-Law.

Justice Hogan asked the young millionaire to step behind the desk, and suspended business while he talked to him.

Mr. Astor asked about the fine of the man John Garvin, the tramp, who walked into Mrs. Astor's house Saturday night and went to sleep in a room upstairs. Garvin was taken to Jefferson Market Court yesterday and fined $5 by Justice Voornis.

The Justice said he would take the whole thing had been settled and the ridiculously light punishment had been administered. He said that his mother is very nervous over the matter, and if he would feel returning and repeating sentence in the prison in lieu of paying the fine.

Justice Hogan said the case had been passed on to Garvin's wife, and that it was possible to rearrest the man.

At Justice Hogan's request Mr. Astor went to Garvin's wife and asked her to take the man home, so he went in by the rear gate, found a door open and, as he expressed it, he "made himself at home."

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

Mr. Astor then went back to the court, and asked if he could not be rearrested. The Justice said he would take the matter under consideration.

PARKHURST AFTER PLATT.

"Next to Tammany," New York Abhors the Professional Boss.

The following letter appeared in an afternoon paper to-day:
LAKEWOOD, N. J., Nov. 10.

Mr. Platt is quoted this morning as saying that he does not want anybody to boss the action of the Legislature. He is handling a matter now in which he can speak with the authority of an expert.

Bossism is a question in which this city feels a deep interest. It is electrifying to hear it treated by one who is no theorist, but an accomplished experimentalist.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons, but because they give him a chance to show his power.

He says the Committee of Seventy and says that Mr. Lexow's committee will resent their interference. If Mr. Platt had interfered a little more promptly for other reasons,